Fees and Charges

Fees are levied for tuition, resources (course materials) and administration (discretionary fee). The tuition cost applies to all vocational award courses, including traineeships and apprenticeships, and vary from course to course depending on the allocated nominal curriculum hours. The resource fee covers the cost of the materials/consumables used in each unit per semester. This does not include textbooks and students may need to purchase additional materials. The resource fee can vary from course to course. The discretionary fee is charged by Curtin VTEC to cover administration and internet services. Fees and charges for this course can be obtained from Client Services.

Recognition of Prior Learning

This is a process whereby you can have your existing skills formally acknowledged, irrespective of how or where they were acquired. RPL acknowledges that many people acquire skills not only through formal education and training but also through work, life experience or informal training. These experiences may include paid or unpaid work, a home business, hobbies, community work, etc. A successful RPL application means that you will not have to attend formal classes and may allow you to progress through your course in a reduced time.

National Recognition

Curtin VTEC will recognise all qualifications and statements of attainment issued by other Registered Training Organisations.
